

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

Introduction

This Whistle Blower Policy has been formulated to enable all employees to raise concern against any malpractice such as immoral, unethical conduct, fraud, corruption, potential infractions of the Code of Conduct of the Company, breaches of copyright or patent and alike. This policy also outlines the reporting procedure and investigation mechanism to be followed in case an employee blows the whistle for any wrong-doing in the Company.

Employees are given protection in two important areas - confidentiality and against retaliation. It is ensured that Employees can raise concerns regarding any violation or potential violation easily and free of any fear of retaliation, provided they have raised the concern in good faith. An ombudsperson has been appointed to receive the complaints through email or letters who would investigate the complaints with an investigating team. The final decision would be taken by the Ombudsperson in consultation with the Audit Committee. This Policy would help to draw the Company's attention to unethical, inappropriate or incompetent conduct which has or may have detrimental effects either for the organisation or for those affected by its functions.

Background

To create enduring value for all stakeholders and ensure the highest level of honesty, integrity and ethical behaviour in all its operations, the Company has formulated this Whistle blower Policy in addition to the existing Code of Conduct that governs the actions of its employees. This Whistle blower Policy aspires to encourage all employees to report suspected or actual occurrence(s) of illegal, unethical or inappropriate events (behaviours or practices) that affect Company's interest /image.

Objective

The Company is committed to adhere to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of business operations. To maintain these standards, the Company encourages its employees who have concerns about suspected misconduct to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment. This policy aims to provide an avenue for employees to raise concerns on any violations of legal or regulatory requirements, incorrect or misrepresentation of any financial statements and reports, etc.

Scope

This policy shall be applicable to all Employees of Aayush Food And Herbs Limited.

In order to enable the Company to effectively evaluate and investigate the complaint, the complainant must provide all the critical information and a detailed description of the Complaint as defined in Annexure A.

Investigation

Any such disclosure/complaint received by the Ombudsperson would be investigated confidentially in order to avoid discrimination against the complainant. The Ombudsperson would decide whether the complaint qualifies for further investigation under this policy or not.

If the Ombudsperson decides that the complaint qualifies for investigation under the Whistle blower Policy, initial enquiry would be conducted by the Ombudsperson. If the initial enquiry indicates that the concern has no basis, or if the matter is not to be pursued under this policy, it may be dismissed at this stage and the decision would be documented.

If initial enquiry indicates a necessity of further investigation, then that will be carried out by the Investigation Team. Investigation may involve study of documents and interviews, access system and other information required for the purpose of investigation. Full cooperation must be provided to Investigation team.

The Investigation Team would submit the report (Not Later than 90 days from date of receipt of concern/disclosure) to the Ombudsperson clearly indicating their findings as early as possible. Ombudsperson can allow additional time for submission of report based on the circumstances of the case.

The final decision will be taken by the Ombudsperson in consultation with the Audit Committee.

All information disclosed during the course of the investigation will remain confidential, except as necessary or appropriate to conduct the investigation and take any remedial action, in accordance with any applicable laws and regulations. The Company reserves the right to refer any concerns or complaints regarding Reportable Matters to appropriate external regulatory authorities.

If the investigation of a report that was done in good faith and investigated by ombudsperson is not to the Whistle blower's satisfaction, then he/she has the right to report the event to the appropriate legal or investigative agency.

The Whistle blower will be kept informed of the progress and the final outcome of the investigation, within the constraints of maintaining confidentiality.

If the malpractice constitute criminal offence Ombudsperson can take appropriate action including reporting to police. Ombudsperson to ensure implementation of Final decision/recommendation. Though no time frame is specified for such action the company will endeavour to act as quickly as possible in case of proved malpractice.

False Complaints

All Employees are protected from victimization, harassment or disciplinary action as a result of any disclosure, where the disclosure is made in good faith and is not made maliciously. Whistle blowers who make any disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala - fide or malicious or who intentionally files a false report of wrongdoing will be subject to disciplinary action including termination.

Confidentiality of Identity of the Whistleblower

Whistle-blower protections are provided in two important areas - confidentiality and against retaliation. In so far as possible, the confidentiality of the Whistle -blower will be maintained. However, identity may have to be disclosed to conduct a thorough investigation, to comply with the law and to provide accused individuals their legal rights of defense.

Protection to Whistleblower

Protection

1.1. If one raises a concern under this Policy, he/she will not be at risk of suffering any form of reprisal or retaliation. Retaliation includes discrimination, reprisal, harassment or vengeance in any manner. Company's employee will not be at the risk of losing her/ his job or suffer loss in any other manner like transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle blowers' right to continue to perform his/her duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure, as a result of reporting under this Policy. The protection is available provided that:

- a. The communication/ disclosure is made in good faith
- b. He /She reasonably believes that information and any allegations contained in it, are substantially true; and
- c. He/She is not acting for personal gain

Anyone who abuses the procedure (for example by maliciously raising a concern knowing it to be untrue) will be subject to disciplinary action, as will anyone who victimizes a colleague by raising a concern through this procedure. If considered appropriate or necessary, suitable legal actions may also be taken against such individuals.

However, no action will be taken against anyone who makes an allegation in good faith, reasonably believing it to be true, even if the allegation is not subsequently confirmed by the investigation.

2. The Company will not tolerate the harassment or victimization of anyone raising a genuine concern. As a matter of general deterrence, the Company shall publicly inform employees of the penalty imposed and disciplinary action taken against any person for misconduct arising from retaliation. Any investigation into allegations of potential misconduct will not influence or be influenced by any disciplinary or redundancy procedures already taking place concerning an employee reporting a matter under this policy.

Any other Employee/business associate assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle blower.

Documentation

The whistle officer shall maintain documentation of all complaints or reports, subject to this Policy. The documentation shall include any written submissions provided by the complainant, any other Company documents identified in the complaint or by the Company as relevant to the complaint, a summary of the date and manner in which the complaint was received by the Company and any response by the Company to the complainant. All such documentation shall be retained by the Company for a minimum of five (5) years from the date of receipt of the complaint or as required by law, whichever is higher.

Additional enforcement information
